Oregon is known throughout the world for its outdoor recreation, wild landscapes, and charismatic microbrews. Great beer begins with clean water, and in Oregon, our cleanest water comes from rivers and streams flowing through unspoiled public forest lands. By protecting and restoring Oregon’s forests and rivers, we can safeguard our clean water, sustain our economy, and maintain a thriving brewing industry.

As a member of the brewing community that recognizes the connection between brewing great beer and protecting the forests and watersheds that make it possible, we support protecting and restoring the forests, wildlands, and waters that make our state such a great place to live, work, and enjoy great beer.
